

I'm want to urge you to back up our constitution and let XM Setellite radio ratain their first amendment right to air traffic, weather and other valuable radio services to its listeners. This used to be a free country and we should do our part to slow the spread of socialism. I'm counting on you to do your part to help this country and its citizens, including businesses, retain what liberties they still have.

Thank you.

Shawn Sonnentag